The sensation of White Cloud, for the past week, has been the approaching wedding of Mr. Jonas Lahmer, mer-chant, with Miss Belle Bowers, adopted daughter of the late Martin B. Bowers. As we have no doubt that the affair duly transpired, there is no burm in making a note of it. The ceremony was set for Tuesday evening, in the Congregational Church. Rev. Wm. Smith, late of White Congregational Church. Rev. Wm. Smith, late of Cloud, but now of Wyandotte, was to officiate. Friend Lahmer has been out in the cold for a good many years, and, although it leaves Pat Shaw an orphan, we congratu-late him on his venture. Jours seems to take the matter very philosophically, and when his friends (and he has many) jestingly refer to the coming amptials, reasons like a Benedick:

a Benedick:

"I may chance have some odd quirks and remnants of wit broken on me, because I have railed so long against marriage; but doth not the appetite alter! A man loves the meat in his age, that he cannot endure in his youth. Shall quips, and sentences, and these paper bullets of the brain, awe a man from the career of his humor! No; the world must be peopled. When I said I would die a bachelor, I did not think I should live till I were married." The bride and groom were to start on their wedding tour Wednesday morning.

A Good ADVERTISING MADICE.-We again call atte to the Chief as a valuable advertising medium, especially in reaching those who mortally hate the paper, and would not subscribe for it under any consideration. Those are the advertisements to find something to raise a ruction over. They can always tell what is in the paper, before regular subscribers can—especially if there is something that presses on their tender toos. Suppose, for example, that Orangeblassom, Fieryanout, and Spenge, are uncon promisingly hostile to the "dirty sheet," and that the proorietor of Vinegar Bitters wishes to attract their attention The advertisement of Visegar Bitters is in stereotype, th exact width of our columns, but in several separate blocks. We would slide two of the blocks slightly apart, insert a line or two of nonpareil type, containing semething that could be construed into a drive at one of the worthice named, then close the gap again, so that it would require a careful search to discover anything but the usual adver-tisement. But by the time a single copy of the Chief had got out of the office, and before the owner could have tim to read three lines in it. Orangeblessom, Fieryanout or Sponge would have sighted that line or two in Vinera tters, and would be dancing about town on the tip of his ear, calling the attention of everybody to the fact. We

ABOUT A PLEASANT OLD GENTLEMAN.—That mysterious pleasant old gentleman from Severance" subscribed for the Republican some three weeks ago, and yet a copy of the paper has never been received for him at the Severane ost office. The thing is beginning to excite some wonder and the public are about equally divided between two the-ories on the subject. One is, that the old gentleman was so dog-goned pleasant, that the publishers send his paper every week, by a special messenger, on two chips; the other is, that the pleasant old gentleman prefers to call at the printing office for his paper, that he may have frequent opportunities of looking those handsome fellows square in the face (In saying square in the face, we intend no all aion to that baby.) We entertain a theory of our own, which is that the pleasant old gentleman looks square int the bettem of a tumbler oftener than he does into any

AN APPARITION.-Monday about noon, a singular appa rition made its appearance in our office. Upon closer in-spection, it proved to be Killough—the veritable T. D. Killough, who formerly haunted the region round about White Cloud and Iowa Point, and the hill country of Cedar Creek. We had lost track of him for years, and suppose he was either dead or emigrated to regions unknown. He has been residing, for several years past, in Brown County, but contemplates soon emigrating to the western part of Nebraska, where he will take a claim, plant a grove of timber, and grow up with the country. In reply to the question of a subscriber, regarding the baby so feelingly alluded to last week, we would not like to be positive, but we have a lurking suspicion that it bore a character similar to that of the son of Hermes and Aph. rodite, otherwise Mercury and Venus, who, when bathcame a Simese twin with a nymph called Salmacia -all of which can be learned from Heathen Mythology.

Our saw mill continues to turn out lumber, and ther appears to be a good demand for the same, judging from the number of wagons loading. Saturday, quite a number of people went through he in the morning to White Cloud, and returned at evening-a law case being on hand, viz: McCoy vs. Tracy, two plugs of horses being the cause of litigation. The case has been postponed, owing to the absence of one impe ant witness. The Republican's thrust at the "tesl tale," last week, was decidedly ungenerous. It was a cut at a man who worked faithfully for them for almost two years, at low wages. They felt unable to give him employment longer, and he has done some little work for us, as he had a right to do. This was more than their envious dispos tions could withstand, and for two weeks past they have been alurring him, solely because he worked for us; and last week, they instituated that he had been telling tales about their office. The truth is, we have never asked him to tell us any of the private matters that came under his notice in the Republican office, and he has not volunteered to do so. If every employee would say as little about the se employ be has left, as this man has affairs of those who to us, there would never be cause for serious compla ually probe a little too deep for comfort, they had better be sure they are right before laying blame on any person.

Joe Harpster, of White Cloud, was in town Mon day. He is talking of going into businers here again. He says he thinks he shall move to Troy for keeps, if he can sell his property in White Cloud—and he is going to do his level best in that direction, if he has to sell it by the glass. We received a call, Tuesday afternoon, from Hon.

Ed. Russell, of Leavenworth. He had been away from the County so long, that he had almost forgotten the read. He thinks Troy looks somewhat differently from what it
